

LECTURES

Understanding Art as an Asset

Presentation at The New York Athletic Club, New York, NY

On April 13th, 2011 Artemundi Global Fund's CEO, Javier Lumbreras spoke at the prestigious New York Athletic Club at the Artelligence seminar, organized in conjunction with Art Market Monitor and Axa Insurance.

With a featured presentation by Adam Lindemann & Amalia Dayan, the one-day seminar discussed the importance of art as an asset.

Art market analysts, art fund managers and experts in the field of handling and insuring works of discussed Art as a family asset, the best practices in the chain of art custody and the keys for successful art funds among, other important topics.

AGF's participation in this event as a pioneer art investment fund was accompanied alongside global leaders in the art market: Anders Petterson, from ArtTactic; Michael Plummer and Jeff Rabin from Artvest; Nikki Brown from Aon Private Risk Management; Sandy Kemper from The Collectors Fund and Enrique Liberman from The Art Fund Association.

ART MARKET MONITOR

ARTEMUNDI
GLOBAL FUND

ARTELLIGENCE

