TITLE OF CONFERENCE: Arthena's Inaugural Art Assets Investment

LECTURE

Arthena is the first equity crowdfunding platform to give individuals access to invest with leaders in the art world. We provide our clients access to the global art market while giving them unprecedented transparency and insight into their investments. Join us for our inaugural Art Assets & Investment Conference hosted alongside Beamonte Investments.

The conference will feature invaluable insights from leaders in the fields of art, finance, and technology. We will discuss the latest international art market trends, how to value art, and the importance of art as a both a financial investment and an investment of passion.
